

Session Title	Belt and Road Digital Health Cooperation &amp; 5th International Forum on Health and Medical Big Data
Session Description	The Belt and Road Digital Health Cooperation and Medical Big Data Forum gathers global leaders and experts to explore the transformative potential of digital health and medical big data. This session will focus on: Advancing international cooperation and fostering innovation in the digital health sector. Discussing AI-driven healthcare and big data analytics, and their role in: Improving patient outcomes; Enabling early diagnosis and personalized treatment. Highlighting successful international collaborations and partnerships; Addressing data security and privacy concerns in global digital health initiatives; Exploring strategies for integrating digital health technologies into healthcare systems worldwide. With participation from government officials, healthcare professionals, and industry leaders, the session aims to: Promote cross-border partnerships and share best practices. Accelerate the adoption of digital health solutions globally. Drive innovation in healthcare delivery and contribute to the global digital health transformation.